PRESIDENTIAL SUCCESSION WASHINGTON Dec 21 - Some questions of importance having been raised as to the operations of the Presidential Succession bill of Senator Hear the attention of that Senator was called to them In reply to the suggestion that the bill having had the out, left the law vague as to when the new President should be chosen. Senator Hour said

Said

Not at all. The new law leaves unrepeale I all the privisions as to the election of a President at the end of every four years from the previous i residental election. It only repeals it i provision as to an election between times. It is the intension if at if. President Cleveland shruhd die defore the expensation of his term becretary. Bayard should take his place and serve the unexpired bulance of Mickey lands term. All Bayard would still be one return of 8 atc. That is a point about which there is a good deal of apprehension. I have received a numerous letters suggesting that if the secretary of State became, President there would have to be a new Secretary of state appended and that would hrow the Secretary of the ite survout of the line of success on This yould not be the case.

Lord Hartington Inclined to Kick Over the Liberal Traces-New York Irishman Rejoicing.

THE IRISH QUESTION.

London, Dec. 21 -Although Mr. Gladstone still remains reticent and evasive in regard to the defuls of his proposed policy in the Irish question there is good reason for believing that he has definitely submitted to the Queen a complete scheme of home rule for Ireland. It is rumored that this programme presents a modified been made by competent engineers of the statement of his original scheme which the ex Premier now judges to be too radical to communa the adherence of the entire body of Labe als But the conviction is general that Mi Gladstone intends to crown his political life with the submission to Parlie political life with the submission to Parlin ment of a programme of firsh legislation which will secure the approval of Mr Parnell Meanwhile Lord Salisbury is preparing for her Majesty's approvantatory scheme of home rule. The Munisters are said to have resolved on a policy of vigorous and united opposition to Mr Gladstone's proposal for the credition of a Parliament at Dublin.

Mr Chamberlain is being forced on by Radical opinion into a willinguess to support Mr Gladstone's firsh bill. It is also apparent that the party managers of the Laber dis have arrived at an understuding with the Nationalists and the two parties will, to all intents and junposes work in namon, together until the Laberal II. der s

HARPER'S YOUNG PEOPLE.

AN 1LLUSTRATED WEEKLY.

The position of Harmer's Young Propleta the leading weekly periodical for young readers is well established. The publishers spare no pains to provide the best and most attractive reading and illustrations. The serial and short stories have strong dramatic interest, while they are wholly free from whatever is permicious or valgarly sensational: the papers an natural history and science, travel, and the facts of life, are by writers whose names give the best assurance of accuracy and value. Illustrated papers on athletic sports, games, and pastimes give full information on these subjects. There is nothing cheap about it but its price.
